REMEMBER POWER

REMEMBER POWER is about more than the simple recollection of an event in my past or a truth I believe.

REMEMBER POWER is the act of bringing the meaning, significance and relevance of an event or truth into my life today so that it is personalized and influences how I see and live in my present circumstances.

Remember that you were slaves in Egypt and that the Lord your God brought you out of there with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm.

Deuteronomy 5:15 NIV

Remember how the Lord your God led you all the way in the wilderness these forty years, to humble and test you in order to know what was in your heart, whether or not you would keep his commands.

Deuteronomy 8:2 NIV

I will remember the deeds of the Lord; yes,
I will remember your miracles of long ago.

Psalm 77:11 NIV

They remembered that God was their Rock, that God Most High was their Redeemer.

Psalm 78:35 NIV

My soul is downcast within me;
therefore, I will remember you from the land of the Jordan, the heights of Hermon—from Mount Mizar.

Psalm 42:6 NIV

For I received from the Lord what
I also passed on to you:

The Lord Jesus, on the night he was betrayed, took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, “This is my body, which is for you; do this in remembrance of me.”

In the same way, after supper he took the cup, saying, “This cup is the new covenant in my blood; do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me.”

For whenever you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

1 Corinthians 11:23-34 NIV

The Lord Jesus, on the night he was betrayed, took bread,

The Lord Jesus, on the night he was betrayed, took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, “This is my body, which is for you; do this in remembrance of me.”

These things happened so that the scripture would be fulfilled: “Not one of his bones will be broken,”

John 19:36 NIV

The Lord Jesus, on the night he was betrayed, took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, “This is my body, which is for you; do this in remembrance of me.”

“I am the living bread that came down from heaven. If any man eats of this bread, he shall live forever. And the bread that I will give is My flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.”

John 6:51 NIV

“I am the living bread that came down from heaven. If any man eats of this bread, he shall live forever. And the bread that I will give is My flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.”

John 6:51 NIV

The Lord Jesus, on the night he was betrayed, took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, “This is my body, which is for you; do this in remembrance of me.”

In the same way, after supper he took the cup, saying, “This cup is the new covenant in my blood; do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me.”

1 Corinthians 11:25 NIV

In the same way, he took the cup of wine after supper, saying, “This cup is the new covenant between God and his people—an agreement confirmed with my blood. Do this in remembrance of me as often as you drink it.”

1 Corinthians 11:25 NLT
