

Questions

1. How are you feeling about your participation in Church these days? Enthusiastic? Reluctant? Other?
2. What does being vulnerable mean to you? Do you think it is necessary to be vulnerable to build relationships and unity at Church?
3. Do you think it is important for followers of Jesus to speak truth into each other's lives? Why or why not?
4. How well are you able to accept constructive criticism from someone else?
5. What role does love play in being vulnerable, humble and brave?
6. In what ways will you lean into Church and build community and unity? Think of specific ways you can do this in the coming weeks.